Standing Rules for Sessions of the Great Plains Annual Conference

I. Rules of order and parliamentary procedures. The current Book of Discipline and the most recent edition of Robert’s Rules of Order shall be the guides and authority for parliamentary procedure in the conduct of all session business.

A. These rules may be suspended or amended by a two-thirds majority of members present and voting.

B. No decisions of the conference may be overturned on procedural grounds after the adjournment of the conference.

C. The agenda shall be the final distributed form at the beginning of the session. In the interest of efficiency, the chair may adjust agenda items as necessary.

D. The Bar of the Conference shall be as designated in the Enabling Motions adopted at the beginning of the session. Only members within the Bar may vote. However, a member outside the Bar, absent on conference business at the seat of the conference approved by conference order, may vote by absentee ballot.

II. Membership, Privilege of the Floor, and Attendance.

A. All lay and clergy members of the Great Plains Annual Conference, as well as clergy from other conferences or denominations serving churches within the Great Plains Annual Conference, shall have privilege of the floor and may address the session on any issue before the body. Persons serving as District Superintendent Assignees (DA) or Certified Lay Ministers (CLM) shall have voice as lay members of the conference. This privilege shall be extended as well to the spouse of the Bishop; to any members of conference, General, or Jurisdictional boards, agencies, or institutions who are not otherwise members of the annual conference; to all members of the Extended Cabinet; and to anyone else presenting items on the agenda.

B. Lay Equalization Plan for Annual Conference Membership: The formula for lay/clergy equalization was determined at the Uniting Conference.

1. Consistent with the provisions of ¶32 and 602.4 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church-2012, the basic lay membership of the annual conference shall include:

   a. Churches with more than one appointed clergy will receive an additional lay member for each clergy appointed to the church.

o. For each clergy campus minister, chaplain, and Wesley Foundation director, there shall be a lay board member or student from the ministry.

2. In addition to the lay members of annual conference mandated by The Book of Discipline (¶32 and 602.4), the first priority in equalizing the number of lay and clergy members will be to grant a lay member from each local church.

3. If, after meeting the requirements of 1 and 2 above, additional lay membership positions are available, lay people assigned by district superintendents to serve as pastors of local churches [District Superintendent Assignment (DA) and Certified Lay Ministers (CLM)] will be seated as lay members. “For each lay campus minister, chaplain, and Wesley Foundation director, there shall be a lay board member or student elected from the ministry.”

4. If, after meeting the requirements of 1, 2, and 3 above, additional lay membership positions are still available, they will be filled in the following order of priority:

a. An additional youth from each district, to be selected by the District Council on Youth Ministry (or equivalent structure).

D. Excuses for pastoral absence for cause during the session shall be secured from the respective district superintendents, rather than from the floor of the conference. The clergy person must also send written notification (by letter or e-mail) to the conference secretary setting forth the reason (¶602.8)

E. Addressing the body
1. Those who wish to address the body shall move in an orderly manner to a microphone and wait to be called upon by the chair.
2. When addressing the body, members shall identify themselves by name, church or current appointment and district. This practice may be relaxed at the chair’s discretion, such as when a particular individual by virtue of office or role addresses the conference multiple times in a single plenary session.

III. Conference Secretary:
Proceedings of the session shall be recorded in a manner determined by the secretary and staff. The secretary shall daily review and consolidate records of the session to ensure accuracy of the official record and recommend adoption by the annual conference. The secretary shall edit and publish the minutes and reports, which when published, shall be the Official Report of the conference.
IV. Items in Writing:
A. Any matter requiring action by the annual conference shall be printed and in the hands of the members of the conference at least four session hours prior to action, to be monitored by the conference secretary. Such items for general distribution shall be prepared and distributed by the sponsoring person or agency at their own expense.
B. All reports and main motions must be submitted to the conference secretary on paper or in an electronic format determined by the secretary. All motions to amend shall be committed to writing and submitted either when being moved or immediately afterward.
C. Privileged and Subsidiary motions other than motions to amend shall be recorded by the conference secretary and secretarial staff and need not be submitted in writing. (Privileged motions include Adjournment, Recess, Question of Privilege, and Order of the Day. Subsidiary motions include Lay on the Table, Previous Question, Limit or Extend the Limits of Debate, Postpone to a Certain Time, and Refer.)

V. Debate:
A. Members shall speak no more than twice on a given item nor longer than three (3) minutes at a given time without special permission from the chair.
B. Limitation of Debate.
   1. When the chair determines the agenda to be 30 minutes behind schedule or at his/her discretion, the chair may declare that debate on motions shall be limited to two speeches for and two speeches against, not to exceed two minutes per speech. This limitation shall include allowing any member to speak only once on a given item. If the chair determines the conference agenda has returned to schedule, the chair may declare the limit on debate to be lifted.
   2. At any time when this limitation is in effect, any member of the body may move to suspend the limitation for a particular item or series of items. Such a motion is not debatable and requires a two-thirds majority.
   3. This limitation of debate shall not apply to sub-groups or any other committee.
   4. With Respect in Debate.
      a. In accordance with John Wesley’s general rules to do all the good that you can and to do no harm, debate is to be conducted in an atmosphere of respect in listening and speaking.
b. Certain rules of respect are already addressed in Robert’s Rules of Order; the extra mile of respect may be done in the model of Holy Conferencing or other communication models.

VI. Voting Matters:
A. When balloting for representatives to General and Jurisdictional conferences, any individual’s ballot shall be invalid in any of the following instances:
1. Fewer or more names are selected than are needed for that round.
2. A lay person is selected on a clergy ballot or a clergy person is selected on a lay ballot.
3. A person already elected or an ineligible name is selected on the ballot.
4. A person is selected twice on a single ballot.
B. Between sessions, when the Bishop, in consultation with the Connecting Council, determines that a matter of the annual conference cannot wait until the next regular session, a vote may be taken by email and/or mail ballot.
1. The members of the annual conference (lay and clergy) who are eligible to vote will be notified that a vote will be taken and informed of the issue via electronic and written methods.
2. Ballots shall be sent out via written and electronic means by the conference secretary in coordination with the office of the Bishop. Ballots will be received and counted by the conference secretary.
3. Reasonable time will be given for the body to respond and a deadline for response announced.
4. A two-thirds majority of the respondents must affirm the motion for the vote to be binding.
5. The members of the annual conference will receive notification of the results of the vote as soon as possible after the deadline for voting.

VII. Financial matters:
A. Revenue neutrality: After adoption of a funding plan and formula for mission shares, any motion from the floor to increase spending in any area of the budget must include an equal or greater, corresponding reduction in spending as part of the same motion.
B. All items with financial implications will be referred to the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) before final adoption. Such referral, at the chair’s discretion, may be before or after discussion and refinement by the body.
