

Resources

Assign a couple of these websites to each member of your team and ask each to report back what they learn and possible ideas your church may wish to explore. Resources include a climate justice simulation game, others have carbon footprint calculators, another has sermon and worship resources. This will take some time, but well worth the effort

Faith and the environment:

- <https://uwfaith.org/what-we-do/serve-and-advocate/climate-justice/>
- hopeandaction.org/main/resources/basic-documents
- www.umccreationcare.org
- <https://umcreationjustice.org/>
- <https://creationcare.umcmmission.org/>
- www.creationjustice.org
- www.greenfaith.org
- www.interfaithpowerandlight.org

Nebraska

Climate Change Implications for Nebraska:

snr.unl.edu/research/projects/climateimpacts/index.aspx

Kansas

What Climate Change Means for Kansas:

www.epa.gov/sites/production/files/2016-09/documents/climate-change-ks.pdf

Kansas State University study about climate change and wheat production:

www.k-state.edu/media/newsreleases/feb15/climatewheat21815.html

National Geographic

www.nationalgeographic.com/environment/climate-change

Articles and commentary

Google "Bill McKibben faith and the environment" by United Methodist Bill McKibben

Movies and documentaries:

Google "new release movies about climate change"